Happy New Year!

Kelsea celebrates our 32nd year (est. 1980)

The Latest News:

Kelsea will soon stock the complete line of Artisan Steel needles and hooks. They are square! More information to follow.

We no longer distribute Leisure Arts titles. Leisure Arts has decided to go through one publishing house in each country outside of the U.S.A. Kelsea attempted to contact the Canadian company that was chosen and we were unsuccessful and we have given up trying to deal with a company that has no interest in any retailers outside of book stores. We still have quite a few titles still in stock.

We are considering a return to representing DRG again. This means that soon you will be able to order Annie's Attic, Needlecraft Shop and House of White Birch books. As well, a selection of Monk's Cloth books will soon be available!

Paternayan Persian supply remains an issue The manufacturer promises there is big news coming any day.

JCA quality needlework kits, made in the U.S., are now in very good supply. We are working on a new kit price list so look for new, much lower prices on all of our kits! Check out www.jcacrafts.com for a complete selection. Sorry, there are no catalogues currently available. Remember these are made in the U.S.— a lot of needlework kits are now made in China and are just not the same.

Check out our NEW website!

www.kelsea.ca

Same address but a completely new look! Our previous website , although popular and always well received, required a lot of updating. So instead of refurbishing the old, we started from scratch.

What you will see there now is a site that will be ever changing and growing.

Our plans are to make this site even easier and faster to navigate! Many of our products will be featured in easy to use order forms starting with knitting needles and crochet hooks.

Please note that if you had any of the old website pages bookmarked they will no longer be accessible.

Any thoughts and comments on the new website will be greatly appreciated. Is there any information that you wish to see on there sooner than later? Let us know!
